Charter

of the General Society of the War of 1812.

To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, No. 2, for the County of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania:—

In compliance with the requirements of the Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania entitled "An Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain Corporations," approved the 29th of April, 1874, and the supplements thereto, the undersigned, the majority of whom are citizens of Philadelphia, having associated themselves together for the purpose of maintaining a Society for the perpetuation of memories of the War of 1812, honoring and aiding surviving veterans of that war and cultivation of general respect and interest in our country's history, desiring that they may be incorporated according to law, do hereby certify:

First.—The name, style and title is the "Society of the War of 1812."

Second.—This Society, originally organized by surviving veterans of the War of 1812 in a general convention held at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in Independence Hall, January 9th, 1854, and continued by them and their descendants, sons and grandsons of deceased participants in that war, has for its objects: To perpetuate the memory and spirit of the men who completed the work of the Revolution by the victories of the War of 1812; to encourage research in relation to this event and the publication of the same; to the establishment of a library and museum for the preservation of documents and relics relating to said war; care and burial of veterans of the War of 1812 where it is necessary, and participation in and promotion of the celebration of the anniversaries of the great events of that war; to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, and foster true patriotism and love of country.

Third.—Male citizens of full age, who participated in, or are descendants of men who served the government during the War of 1812, either in the army, navy or privateer services, may be admitted to membership in this Society.

Fourth.—This Society, seated and located in the City of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, United States of America, shall have the right to constitute, warrant, authorize and recognize one branch of the Society of the War of 1812, in each State or Territory of the United States.

Fifth.—The Society shall have power to adopt a constitution and rules for its government to carry out the objects above set forth, and such similar objects as are not antagonistic to the laws of the United States or of any Commonwealth in the Union, or of the welfare or happiness of the people thereof.

Sixth.—The officers of the Society for the ensuing year shall be: John Cadwalader, President; Francis Asbury Roe, Marshall I. Ludington, Edward Trenchard, John Biddle Porter, Appleton Morgan, Vice-Presidents; Peter S. Hay, Secretary and Treasurer; Andrew Jackson Reilly, Registrar; Thomas Chase, Assistant-Secretary; Henry H. Bellas, James Glentworth, Charles H. Murray, Henry M. Hoyt, Jr., A. Nelson Lewis, Reynold W. Wilcox, Henry Dexter Warren, D. McKnight Hobart, William Ellison Bullus, Executive Committee.

Seventh.—The said Society is to exist perpetually.

Eighth.—The names and residences of the subscribers are as follows: John Cadwalader, 1519 Locust Street, Philadelphia, Pa.; Francis Asbury Roe, 1232 Seventeenth Street, Washington, D. C.; Peter S. Hay, 4542 Rubicam Avenue, Germantown, Philadelphia, Pa.; Andrew J. Reilly, 1437 North Nineteenth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.; Henry H. Deputy Recorder.

Decree.

In the Court of Common Pleas, No. 2, of Philadelphia County, September Term, 1892, No. 299.

In the matter of the incorporation of the "Society of the War of 1812."

And, now, to wit: this nineteenth day of November, A. D. 1892, the above certificate of incorporation having been on file in the office of the Prothonotary of said county since the twenty-seventh day of October, A. D. 1892, the day upon which publication of notice of intended application was first made, as appears from entry thereon, and due proof of said publication having been therewith presented to me, I do hereby certify that I have perused and examined said instrument, and find the same to be in proper form and within the purpose named in the first class of Corporations, specified in Section 2, of the Act of April 29, 1874, and that said purposes are lawful and not injurious to the community.

It is therefore ordered and decreed that the said charter be approved, and upon the recording of said charter and its endorsements, and this order in the office of the Recorder of Deeds, in and for said county, which is now hereby ordered, the subscribers thereto and their associates shall thenceforth be a corporation for the purposes and upon the terms and under the name therein stated.

Certified:

WILLIAM B. MANN,
Prothonotary.

SAMUEL W. PENNYPACKER,
Judge of Court of Common Pleas, No. 2,
First Judicial District of Pennsylvania.

Recorded in the Office for the Recording of Deeds, etc., in and for the City and County of Philadelphia, in Charter Book No. 18, page 429, etc.

Witness my hand and seal of office, this 8th day of December, A. D. 1892.

THOS. GREEN,
Recorder of Deeds.

The Constitution.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, In the Providence of God, victory having crowned the allied forces of the United States of America, in upholding the principles of the Nation against Great Britain in the conflict known as the War of 1812; we, the survivors and descendants of those who participated in that contest, have joined together to perpetuate its memories and victories, to collect and secure for preservation, rolls, records, books and other documents relating to that period; to encourage research and publication of historical data, including memorials of patriots of that era in our national history; the establishment of a library and museum; to care for and, when necessary, assist in burying actual veterans of that struggle; to cherish, maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom, and foster true patriotism and love of country.

ARTICLE I.

Name. The Society shall be known as the "General Society of the War of 1812."

ARTICLE II.

Membership. Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, who participated in, or who is a lineal descendant of one who served during the War of 1812, in the army, navy, revenue-marine or privateer service of the United States, offering proof thereof satisfactory to the Executive Commitee, and of good moral character and reputation, may become a member of this Society when approved of by the Board of Direction or the Society.

In case of the failure of lineal descendants of an actual participant in the war on behalf of the United States, one collateral descendant, whom the Board of Direction deems worthy, may be admitted to represent the said participant.

ARTICLE III.

Officers.

The officers shall consist of a President, five Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, and an Executive Committee of nine members, who, together, shall form the Board of Direction, having the general management of the affairs of this Society. They shall be chosen by ballot at the annual meetings of the Society, by and from members in good standing.

The Board of Direction shall control the affairs of the Society, regulate the terms and details of admission to membership, fix salaries, make appropriations, arrange for meetings (other than annual), and celebrations, provide relief in sickness or death of actual veterans, receive delegates from similar constituted societies or individuals of national reputation—as patriots,—and collect and provide for the due care and safety of books, documents, papers, portraits, relics and such literature relating to the War of 1812 as may be acquired by purchase, gift, bequest or loan.

ARTICLE IV.

Admission of Members.

Every application for membership shall be made in writing, subscribed by the applicant, setting forth claims of eligibility, and contain or be accompanied by proofs of same.

On the recommendation of two members, such application and proofs shall be submitted to the Executive Committee or to such sub-committee as they may select, who may approve of and report the same to the Board of Direction. Payment of the initiation fee and subscription to the declaration in the printed form of application, is required of each applicant on admission.

ARTICLE V.

Meetings.

The regular meeting of the General Society shall be held in the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, United States of America, on the eighteenth day of February, in each year (unless it shall fall upon Sunday, when the day subsequent may be substituted), that being the anniversary of the proclamation of peace in 1815, the end of the War of 1812.

The Board of Direction will hold its annual meeting on or about the nineteenth day of June in each year, the anniversary of the declaration of war in 1812, by the United States against Great Britain.

Special meetings may be called by the President at the request of ten or more members, to transact only such business as shall be specified in the call. No questions involving partisan politics, religion or offensive personalities shall be discussed at any meeting.

When practicable, the meetings shall be held in the old Senate Chamber of the United States, where Washington and Adams were inaugurated.

ARTICLE VI.

Branch Societies.

The General Society, seated and located in the City of Philadelphia, shall have the right to warrant, constitute and recognize one branch in any State or Territory of the United States, whenever eighteen or more members of this Society residing in said State or Territory shall apply for authority to organize such branch, or where such Society may already be formed and is approved by this Society.

Each State branch shall pay into the treasury of this Society an entrance-fee of ten dollars, and remit annually thereafter the sum of twenty-five cents for each and every member in good standing on the rolls of each branch Society, as reported on January 1st of each year.

The several branch Societies shall conform to this organization in constitution, insignia and certificates of membership, also in the number and character of its officials, but shall have the right respectively to rule each its own affairs outside of these restrictions. Each branch Society may send delegates to represent its membership at the annual meeting of the General Society, in February of each year, at Philadelphia.

The Secretary of each branch Society shall transmit to the Secretary of the General Society a list of the members thereof, together with a list of those from whom said members derive claim to membership, and thereafter, upon the admission of additional members, the Secretary thereof shall transmit to the General Society such similar information respecting said members.

ARTICLE VII.

Expulsion of Members.

Any member found guilty of unlawful or improper conduct, after due notice and fair trial, may be expelled under rules and regulations made and provided for that purpose.

ARTICLE VIII.

Insignia.

The insignia of the Society shall consist of a badge of gold or bronze, pendant from a ribbon and bar. Said badge shall be in the form of a Maltese cross, (emblematic of faith in our country), between four eagles, (representing the four sections—north, south, east and west—of our common country), and resting upon an anchor, (representative of the American navy by which so many glorious victories of the War of 1812 were achieved). The arms of the cross to bear insignia representing the four arms of service, (infantry, cavalry, artillery and naval), and in the center thereof, a medallion bearing the bust of General Andrew Jackson, distinguished as a hero of the war and afterwards as President of these United States. The bar of the anchor to be inscribed with the figures 1812, and the anchor to be suspended from the ribbon by a ring of gold or bronze. The ribbon shall be dark blue, watered and edged with white and black successively; the entire ribbon to be one and one-half inches in width, and one and one-half inches in displayed length. The bar suspending the ribbon shall be surrounded by a band of eighteen stars, emblematic of the number of the States of the Union during the war.

The insignia shall be worn on the left breast by the members of the Society at all general meetings, on all occasions of ceremony, or when they shall assemble for any stated purpose or celebration. On all other occasions, other than those specified above, members may wear a rosette of the prescribed ribbon and pattern, in the upper buttonhole of the left lapel of the coat, which rosettes, like the insignia, shall be procured and issued by the Secretary of the Society, and by whom a record of all issues to members will be kept. The insignia shall never be worn as an article of jewelry or ornament, and should be returned to the Society on the resignation or expulsion of a member; but otherwise, it shall be deemed an heirloom.

ARTICLE IX.

Seal. The seal of the Society shall be two and one-half inches in diameter, and shall consist of a rising sun, bearing on its face a representation of the bombardment of Fort McHenry by the British fleet, while above the sun and its rays, rises, displayed, the Star Spangled Banner of our country, with the motto of the Society—"For our country's rights"—in small Roman capital letters overhead. The design described to be surrounded by wreaths of oak and laurel, (emblematic of the valor and victory of our soldiers and sailors), with trophies of cannon, musket, sword and anchor on each side of, and below said design. The whole to be encircled with a waving ribbon, one-fourth of an inch wide, bearing above, in plain Roman capital letters, the legend, "The Society of the War of 1812," and below, in similar letters, the words, "Founded 1854." The Secretary of the Society shall be the custodian of the seal, which shall be used only for the purposes designated by the Board of Direction.

ARTICLE X.

Certificate of Membership. Each member shall be entitled to a certificate of membership, which shall be authenticated by the President and Secretary, countersigned by the Registrar, and to which the seal of the Society shall be affixed. The form shall be as follows:—

GENERAL SOCIETY OF THE WAR OF 1812.

ARTICLE XI.

Amendments.

No alteration or amendment shall be made to this Constitution until a written resolution to that effect be offered at a stated meeting of the Society, considered and approved by the Board of Direction, and, at the next or some subsequent stated meeting, receive the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present or represented.

ARTICLE XII.

Charter.

The charter granted by the Court of Common Pleas, No. 2, for the County of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, November 19th, 1892, is hereby accepted, approved, and made part and parcel of this constitution.

Rules.

SECTION 1.

Finances. The initiation fee shall be four (4) dollars; the annual dues two (2) dollars, payable between January 1st and February 15th, in each year. After the latter date, members who have not paid, will be deemed in arrear and debarred from voting at the meetings of the Society. Persons admitted to membership after October 1st of any year, are exempt from payment of dues for that year. The payment at any one time of fifty (50) dollars shall entitle the member so paying, to a life membership. The payment of one hundred (100) dollars at any one time, shall constitute a perpetual or endowed membership, and upon the death of the member so paying, the said membership shall descend to and be held by his eldest son or such other descendant from the ancestor from whom claim is made, as he may nominate. In case of failure of such nomination having been made, the Society may decide which one of the descendants shall hold said membership. Provided, always: That the Society reserves to itself in all cases the right of rejecting any nomination that may not be acceptable to it. All those holding life or endowed memberships, will be exempt from the payment of the initiation fee and annual dues.

The permanent fund, acquired by contributions, donations, legacies and by initiation, life and endowed membership fees, shall remain forever to the use of the Society, the income thereof to be used for the assistance of such deserving members, who are veterans of the War of 1812, as may need financial aid; and if not so required, then for the purposes of the library and museum, and for the general welfare of the Society. This permanent fund shall be invested in such manner as may be determined upon by the Board of Direction.

SECTION 2.

Duties of Officers. The President, or, in his absence, a Vice-President, or, in their absence, a Chairman pro tempore, shall preside at all meetings of the Society or Board of Direction, and shall exercise the usual functions of a presiding officer under general parliamentary rules, subject to an appeal to the General Society, in proper cases under those rules. The President shall be, ex-officio, a member of all committees. He shall have power to call a meeting of the Board of Direction at such time and place, as he may deem advisable. He shall represent this Society, either in person or by substitute, at such assemblages as may be consistent with the objects, aims and purposes of this Society.

In case of his decease, resignation, neglect to serve, or inability from any cause to act as President, the duties of the office shall devolve on the senior Vice-President until the disability shall cease or his successor is duly elected and qualified.

SECTION 3.

Secretary. The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society and keep a record thereof. He shall notify all accepted candidates of their admission and perform such other duties as the Society or Board of Direction may reasonably require of him. He shall have charge of the seal, certificates of incorporation, insignia, constitution, rules and resolutions, historical and other documents, and records of the Society, (other than those required to be deposited with the Registrar), and shall affix the seal to all properly authenticated certificates of membership and transmit the same to the member for whom it shall be issued.

He shall notify the Registrar of all admissions to membership and transmit to him, the applications and proofs of eligibility of all persons admitted. He, together with the presiding officer, shall, when necessary, certify all acts of the Society and in proper cases, authenticate them under seal. He, with the Registrar, shall have charge of all printing and publications directed by the Society or Board of Direction. He shall give due notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Society, and of the Board of Direction, and shall attend the same. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society and of the Board of Direction, and shall give notice to the several officers of all proceedings appertaining to their respective duties; and at the annual meeting, or oftener, if required, shall report to the Society the names of those who have been admitted to membership and the names of those who, from any reason, have been disassociated. The Secretary shall also notify the Historian and Registrar of all deaths in the Society, and, where convenient, these officers may represent the Society at the funerals of deceased members.

An Assistant-Secretary may be appointed by the President, who shall perform the functions assigned him by the Secretary, and in the absence or inability of that officer, fill his place.

SECTION 4.

Treasurer. The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, and deposit the same in some banking institution, which shall be designated by the Board of Direction, to the credit of the "Society of the War of 1812." Such funds shall be drawn thence by the check of the Treasurer, countersigned by the President, to be used only for the purposes of the Society. Checks for sums not larger than twenty-five dollars need not be countersigned.

Out of these funds the Treasurer shall pay such sums as may be ordered by the Society, Board of Direction, or, in case of urgent necessity, the Executive Committee. He shall keep a true and accurate account of his receipts and payments; and at each annual meeting, report the full financial condition of the Society, when an auditing committee shall be appointed, who shall report the result of their audit to the Board of Direction.

SECTION 5.

Registrar. The Registrar shall receive from the Secretary, file and keep on record, all the proofs upon which membership has been granted; a list of all certificates countersigned by him, and all documents, rolls, or other evidences of service in the War of 1812, of which the Society may become possessed; and shall make, or cause to be made, for filing in his office, copies of such original or certified copies of such documents, as the owners thereof may not be willing to leave permanently in the keeping of the Society. He shall receive donations of books, documents and relics relating to American history of the first twenty-five years of the nineteenth century, and, under the direction of the Executive Committee, secure such publications, manuscripts or objects of interest, as may be obtainable by purchase, for preservation in the library or museum.

He shall aid and co-operate with the Secretary in all printing and publications ordered by the Society, or Board of Direction, correspond with Registrars of patriotic societies in the United States, and, whenever convenient, accompany the Secretary to funerals of deceased members.

SECTION 6.

Board of Direction.

The Board of Direction, composed of the elective officers of the Society, united with the Executive Committee, shall generally superintend the interests, and have the control and management of the affairs and funds of the Society. The Board shall receive nominations for officers, filed prior to the first day of January in each year, and shall prepare the tickets for voting, by the members at the annual meeting in the February following.

The said Board shall have power to consent to and accept the resignation or voluntary withdrawal from membership of any enrolled member of the Society, and may also issue an authorization to every enrolled member of this Society, in good standing and repute, to be admitted as a member and affiliate with any branch Society recognized by this General Society.

The Board may require the attendance of any member, or any official or committee of this Society, at any meeting, for consultation or advice. The annual meeting of the Board shall be held on, or about the date of the anniversary of the declaration of war by the United States against Great Britain. The Board shall also hold a preliminary meeting in January, to prepare business for the annual general meeting of the Society in the February following. The Board may also be convened by the President at the written request of three of its members. Five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

At the annual meeting of the Society, the Board shall submit a general report of its proceedings during the year then closing, and at such other times as may be required by the Society.

The Board of Direction shall have power to suspend any enrolled member of the Society who, by ungentlemanly conduct or by a radical opposition to its interests, may render himself unworthy to continue a member, or wilfully neglects to fulfill the requirements of the constitution and rules of this Society. Such accused member shall be entitled to receive thirty days' notice of the complaint preferred against him, and be afforded a fair opportunity to be heard in person, before suspension. If no appeal be taken within sixty days, such suspension shall become expulsion and be so reported to the Society at its annual meeting.

The Board may direct the Secretary to drop the name of any member from the rolls, who shall be in arrear in the payment of his dues for the period of three years; but such name may be restored subsequently, by a vote of two-thirds of the Board, on an application by such member being made therefor and payment of all arrears up to date.

The Board may suspend any officer for clear cause of lack of integrity, want of faithfulness, or for gross neglect in the performance of his duties and report the same to the Society within sixty days, by which, after fair opportunity for hearing, such action may be confirmed; or by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at the meeting, the suspension be annulled and the officer restored to his position.

Whenever an officer of this Society shall die, resign or neglect to serve, or be suspended or removed, or be unable to properly perform his duties from any cause; and whenever an office shall become vacant which the Society has not filled by an election, the Board of Direction shall have power to appoint a member to the vacant office, until the inability to act shall cease. Provided, that the office of President shall not thus be filled, when there shall be a Vice-President competent to act.

SECTION 7.

Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee shall judge of the qualifications of every candidate who shall make proper application for admission to the Society, and shall have power to admit him to membership therein, subject to the approval of the Board of Direction. Three negative votes shall be a rejection of the applicant.

The said Executive Committee may, through the Secretary, call a special meeting of the Society at such times as may be necessary, and arrange for business meetings and commemorative celebrations by the Society.

The said Committee may hold meetings monthly, to act upon applications for membership, and consider all matters proper for the attention and action of the Board of Direction at the annual meeting of that body.

The said Committee may suggest the names of three clergymen, from which list the President shall appoint a Chaplain to serve one year. It may also suggest the names of three members, from whom the President shall appoint an Historian to serve one year, and who shall prepare at least one historical paper and obituaries of deceased members during the year.

SECTION 8.

Meetings. Ten days' notice of time and place of annual or special meetings may be given by publication in two daily newspapers in the City of Philadelphia, and by mailing through the Post Office, a written or printed notice to every member of the Society. At all meetings of the Society, twenty-five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

The order of business shall be as follows:—

1. Prayer.
2. Reading of minutes.
3. Report of Board of Direction.
4. Reports from officers.
5. Reports from special committees.
6. Communications read.
7. Election of officers.
8. Unfinished business.
9. Miscellaneous business.

SECTION 9.

Members. Each member, on being notified of his admission, shall signify his adherence to the constitution and rules, and forward to the Secretary of the Society his initiation fee and one year's dues.

Change of residence should at once be communicated to the Secretary, as service of notice at his last recorded address shall be considered sufficient.

SECTION 10.

Suspension of Rules. Any of the foregoing rules may be suspended at any meeting of the Society or Board of Direction, by a two-thirds vote of those present when the exigencies of the case may require it.

Proceedings

of the

Annual Meeting

of the

SOCIETY OF THE WAR OF 1812.

1894.

The Fortieth Anuual Meeting of the Society of the War of 1812 was held in Philadelphia, in the old U. S. Senate Chamber, Corner of Sixth and Chestnut Streets, on February 19, 1894.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. John Cadwalader, at 4.30 P. M.

The Secretary, Peter S. Hay, read the Minutes of the last Meeting of the Society, which upon motion were approved. The Secretary's report, of which the following is an abstract, was then read and approved.

"Since the last annual meeting fifty-seven (57) gentlemen residing in fourteen (14) States of the Union have been admitted to membership, representing the Army and Navy, as well as professional and mercantile life. The Committee on Admissions has carefully refused to entertain the applications of ineligible or unworthy persons. During the past year the long mooted project of organizing branches of this Society in other States has assumed a new phase, and in due time you will be called on to determine whether it is expedient to aid in the formation of a National Society, composed of delegates from several States.

A committee of this Society has met the committees appointed by the Societies of the War of 1812, in New York and Maryland, and it will doubtless report to this Society the result of its negotiations.

A very handsome Certificate of Membership has been prepared and is now ready for issue to members.

The publication of the Year Book of the Society for the present year has been deferred until after the annual meeting, in order that it may contain the latest information concerning the officers, committees and an abstract of the proceedings of this meeting, for the benefit of our absent members.

It having become necessary to procure a new supply of ribbon for the insignia of the Society, the Board of Direction considered it a suitable time to improve the appearance, as well as to make the colors of the ribbon historically correct, by the addition of a narrow outside edge of scarlet, thereby combining the various colors used in the Army and Navy uniforms of the United States, during the War of 1812, and quite different from the ribbon of any other organization in this country.

At the same time, it was thought expedient to recommend a slight modification of the insignia. This can only be done by constitutional amendment. In the meantime, a design for an enameled badge, deviating but slightly from the original one in general outline, but much handsomer in all its details, has been recommended for adoption by the Board of Direction to the Society, pending the enforced delay of a constitutional amendment.

It is proposed to dispense with the bar, and group the eighteen representative stars in a circle around the central medallion, which, instead of an undistinguishable miniature bust, will bear the legend "1812" in figures of gold upon a background of dark blue. All the colors in the ribbon are duplicated in enamel on the medal, presenting a much handsomer effect and at less cost than the original insignia.

For the purpose of establishing this Society upon a sound financial basis, without which no organization can flourish, the Board of Direction recommends that the rule creating a "permanent fund" be amended to include all entrance fees, life and endowed membership fees, in addition to gifts and legacies already provided for.

The finances have been managed with a due regard to economy and the best interests of the Society.

The cash receipts during the past year were:

Receipts.		Disbursements.
Balance on hand, February 10, 1893,	$427 04	Cash paid out during the year,	$598 03
Received during the year, 1893–'4,	678 06	Balance in Treasurer's hands on February 19, 1894,	507 07
Total,	$1,105 10	Total,	$1,105 10

During the past year the Secretary has been notified of the death of six of its Veteran Members, viz:

David H. Ames, (Ills.), aged 101 years, 7 months.

Hezekiah Coon, (Iowa), aged 96 years.

Samuel Packard, (Me.), aged 91 years.

John W. Peavey, (Vt.), aged 96 years, 3 months.

Benjamin Poor, (N. H.), aged 97 years, 6 months.

David J. Williams, (N. Y.), aged 99 years.

Also Mr. Alfred W. Frick, an old member on the list of descendants.

Photographs of the following Veteran Members have been received:

Moses Cleveland, Samuel Packard, Benjamin Poor, Thomas Spinney, Reynold Webb.

The other members of the Society are urged to add to this collection by sending the photographs of their Veteran Ancestors, as well as their own.

It has been suggested that this Society should take steps to rescue from oblivion the places upon, or in which, events of importance transpired during the War of 1812, by the erection of memorial tablets, and to see that the graves of Soldiers or Sailors of the War of 1812 be appropriately remembered each year on Decoration Day."

Nominations being in order, it was then moved and seconded that the Secretary be authorized to cast one ballot for the election of the following officers to serve for the ensuing year:

President,

John Cadwalader, Philadelphia, Pa.

Vice Presidents,

COLONEL JOHN BIDDLE PORTER, Philadelphia, Pa.

APPLETON MORGAN, LL. D., Westfield, N. J.

BRIGADIER GENERAL ADOLPHUS W. GREELY, U. S. A.

COMMANDER WILLIAM BAINBRIDGE HOFF, U. S. N.

BRIGADIER GENERAL CHARLES SUTHERLAND, U. S. A.

Registrar,

ANDREW JACKSON REILLY, Philadelphia, Pa.

Treasurer,

HENRY MARTIN HOYT, Philadelphia, Pa.

Secretary,

CAPTAIN HENRY HOBART BELLAS, U. S. A.

Executive Committee,

CHARLES H. MURRAY, New York, N. Y.

REYNOLD W. WILCOX, M. D., LL. D., New York, N. Y.

DAVID MCKNIGHT HOBART, Philadelphia, Pa.

CHARLES WILLIAMS, Philadelphia, Pa.

GEORGE HORACE BURGIN, M. D., Germantown, Pa.

PETER STUART HAY, Germantown, Pa.

CHARLES WURTS SPARHAWK, Philadelphia, Pa.

ADAM ARBUCKLE STULL, Philadelphia, Pa.

WILLIAM CHETWOOD SPENCER, Elizabeth, N. J.

Carried.

CYRUS KINGSBURY REMINGTON, of Buffalo, New York, was appointed Historian; Rev. HORACE EDWIN HAYDEN, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., Chaplain, and JAMES VARNUM PETER TURNER, of Philadelphia, Pa., Assistant Secretary of the Society.

Captain H. H. Bellas, U. S. A., then moved the Society consider the advisability of the purchase of two large and fine engravings representing a first and second view of Commodore Perry's victory on Lake Erie, and offered for the inspection of the members. Mr. Charles W. Sparhawk seconded the motion, and the purchase was ordered at the price of $15 for both engravings.

Dr. George H. Burgin moved that Section I of the Rules be amended by inserting therein after the word "legacies," the words "and by initiation, life and endowed membership fees," and by adding at the end of the Section the words: "This permanent fund shall be invested in such manner as may be determined upon by the Board of Direction."

After debate, and a decision by the Chair that the rules could be modified by a vote of the Society, at the same meeting, (not being a part of the Constitution), Dr. Burgin's motion was carried unanimously.

Captain Bellas then submitted an amendment to Article VIII, of the Constitution, for a proposed change in the insignia, which had been approved by the Board of Direction and recommended to the Society for adoption; providing that the first clause thereof should read as follows: "The insignia of the Society shall consist of a badge of gold, (or bronze), pendant from a ribbon. Said badge shall be in the form of a Maltese cross, (emblematic of faith in the justice of our cause), between four (4) golden eagles, (symbolizing the four sections—north, south, east and west—of our common country), and resting upon an anchor of gold, (representative of the American Navy, by which so many glorious victories of the War of 1812 were achieved). The arms of the cross to be enameled in scarlet with a white border, and to bear the insignia in gold of the four (4) arms of service, (infantry, cavalry, artillery and naval), and in the center thereof, a medallion of dark blue enamel with the figures 1812 thereon in gold, surrounded by a band of black enamel, bearing eighteen (18) stars in gold, representing the number of States of the Union during the period of conflict. The anchor and cross to be suspended from the ribbon by a ring of gold, (or bronze). The ribbon shall be of watered silk, dark blue in the center, with white and black stripes on the sides successively and edged with scarlet; the entire ribbon to be one and one-half inches in width and the same dimensions in displayed length."

It was ordered that the proposed amendment be placed on file, to be brought up, under Article XI, of the Constitution, at the next stated meeting of the Society, for final action thereon.

On motion, the Secretary was then directed to read for the information of the members, the reports of the Conference Committee of the Society in regard to the question of union with other Societies of the War of 1812; and of which the following is a compendium:

After reviewing the correspondence held with the New York and Maryland Societies, as to the time and place of meeting, and stating that a joint conference was held with a delegation of the latter named Society in Philadelphia, on October 30th, 1893, for an interchange of opinion, the report adds: "that after careful investigation, it was ascertained that the Maryland Society now contains sixty-five (65) active members, with bright prospects of a rapid increase of members; that it has had a continuous existence from its original organization, and that there had been no lapse in its existence in 1886, as had been alleged. Also that at this time, it has on its rolls still one member living, who participated in the War of 1812, and consequently comes under the provisions of the Act of Congress of September 25th, 1890, which provides for the recognition and wearing of the insignia of such Societies by officers of the Army and Navy, who are members thereof."

A proposed "basis of union" was submitted and agreed upon by all the members of the delegations of the two Societies represented in the joint conference, with the exception of one dissenting vote. The committee then asked for a continuance until the preliminary meeting of the Board of Direction of the Society in January next, in order to allow opportunity to confer with the committee from the New York Society which had failed to be represented at the previous conference, on the plea of lack of sufficient notice of the meeting. Approved.

The second report of the said Committee of Conference to the Board of Direction of the Society, at its meeting on January 31st last, stated "that since the preceding report was submitted, the Association of Descendants of Defenders in 1812–14, in Baltimore, Md., had formerly ratified the 'basis of union' proposed, and had been regularly incorporated in conformity with the plan therein set forth and agreed upon, as 'The Society of the War of 1812, in Maryland;' that their rules of eligibility, dues and newly adopted constitution had been modeled on the lines laid down in this Society, that one or more additional Veterans of the War had been added to their rolls, and the Society was rapidly increasing in its membership with descendants of a most worthy and desirable character." Further proofs were presented by the officers of the Maryland Society in response to requests, showing conclusively the fact of its continuous existence, and notice was given our Society of the selection of duly authorized delegates, who were directed to be present at the joint convention proposed to be held at an early day.

An informal conference was also held on January 20th, by a sub-committee in New York City, with the committee of the New York Society, which conference, while not so conclusive as that held with the Maryland Society, was in the main, satisfactory, and after a full and frank discussion, a union with the New York Society was not deemed improbable. The New York Society, though only recently organized and incorporated, has been made the continuous successor of one composed of Veterans of 1812, and claiming to date from 1826. It thus comes also under the provisions of the Act of Congress already cited. A delegation from each of the two State Societies named, to meet with that of our own Society, is expected to be present at the joint convention proposed to be held in Philadelphia, for a final decision of the whole question.*

Mr. Charles H. Murray, of New York, then stated that at the last meeting of the Board of Direction, the following resolution was offered and passed: Resolved, That the Board of Direction of the General Society of the War of 1812, recommend the adoption of the reports of the said Committee on Conference for the union of the various Societies of the War of 1812 in other States, and the

---

*The proposed basis of union, alluded to above, provides:

1. For the election of five (5) delegates from each State Society represented in the joint convention.
2. For the formation of a National Society, to be known as the General Society of the War of 1812; the election of General Officers therefor, and the adoption of a provisional constitution.
3. That the said General Society shall meet biennially, in Philadelphia or such place as may be selected at the previous meeting of the General Society.
4. That each State Society shall be entitled to representation by five (5) delegates, and one (1) additional delegate for every fifty (50) members or fraction thereof.
5. Each State Society to adopt the present modified insignia and colors of the Pennsylvania Society, also the seal and certificate of membership of said Society.
6. The members of each State Society to be permitted to wear such addional insignia as they now or in future may adopt, but not in substitution of the insignia of the General Society.
7. The style and title of each State Society to be as follows: The Society of the War of 1812 in the State of ———
8. The entire local affairs of each State Society to be left to its own government.
9. Biennial reports to be made to the General Society by the proper officers of each State Society.
10. Report of the acceptance of these agreed upon provisions, to be made by the committees to their respective State Societies at their next meeting.
11. All other State Societies to be admitted in the future on the same basis as the above.

election of five delegates from the Society of the War of 1812 in the State of Pennsylvania, to meet delegates from similar Societies in other States, with power to represent this Society and report the result of their conference for further action of the Society, at an adjourned meeting thereof. That resolution having been passed by the Board of Direction at its last meeting and with the recommendation of the Board to our General Society to act upon it, he now brought the matter up for discussion and action.

The question of the advisability of union on a reasonable basis with other State Societies, already existing, and adoption of the plan proposed, viz: The election of delegates from this Society to meet those from other States in joint convention was freely discussed by Colonel J. Biddle Porter, C. W. Sparhawk, Charles Williams, F. M. Brooke, E. C. Lee, Captain H. H. Bellas and others.

On motion of Reynold W. Wilcox, M. D., of New York, it was then moved to proceed to the election of delegates to meet in joint convention with those of other States, and that the delegates be directed to report back to the Society at an adjourned meeting, to be held not later than the fifteenth of March next.

Mr. Charles Murray, of New York, seconded the motion, but moved to amend by making the adjourned meeting subject to the call of the chair.

The motion, as amended, was adopted.

The following gentleman were then elected delegates to the joint convention proposed, being a majority of the former Conference Committee:

Colonel John Biddle Porter, Appleton Morgan, LL. D., Captain H. H. Bellas, U. S. A., Charles H. Murray, George H. Burgin, M. D.

The following gentlemen were elected as alternates:

William Chetwood Spencer, Charles Williams, Charles W. Sparhawk, Adam A. Stull, Edward R. Shubrick.

The Chair then announced the receipt of a memoir of Joel Barlow Sutherland, the first President of the Society, written by Brigadier General Charles Sutherland, U. S. Army, the Historian of the Society for the preceding year. It was ordered, on motion, that the address be referred to the incoming Board of Direction to report the advisability of printing it for distribution to the members of the Society, and with power to act.

On motion of Captain Bellas, a vote of thanks of the Society was tendered Mr. Joseph T. Bailey for the great interest he had manifested in the welfare of the Society, and in the many favors he had extended to it; among others, having had a card of membership engraved, a copy printed therefrom and presented to every member of the Society free of charge. Motion carried.

On motion of Charles Williams, the thanks of the Society were tendered to Peter Stuart Hay, the former Secretary, for his past services, (he now voluntarily retiring from office), and on motion of Dr. George H. Burgin, a committee was appointed to draw up a series of resolutions to that effect.

Mr. Hay returned his thanks to the members of the Society.

A vote of thanks to the stenographer for his services was also passed.

A communication from the Ladies' Hermitage Association, of Nashville, Tennessee, was reported and directed to be referred to the Board of Direction.

On motion, the Society then adjourned to meet at the call of the Chair.

H. H. BELLAS,

Secretary.
